

Mohamed Sathak College of Arts and Science

(Sponsored by Mohamed Sathak Trust)

Approved by AICTE | UGC | Affiliated to University of Madras
(A Muslim Minority Institution), An ISO 9001:2015 Certified Institution
Sholinganallur, Chennai - 600 119.

80TH INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION – 2026 REPORT

Event	80th Independence Day Celebration – 2026
Institution	Mohamed Sathak College of Arts & Science
Date	15 August 2026
Chief Guest	Ms. Archana Asokan, Senior Executive, Cognizant, Chennai
Key Highlights	Flag Hoisting • Keynote Address • Student Performances • Competitions • Prize Distribution • Overall Championship

1. Introduction

Mohamed Sathak College of Arts & Science celebrated the 80th Independence Day with patriotic spirit, enthusiasm and wholehearted participation from students, teaching staff, non-teaching staff and NSS volunteers. The celebration provided an opportunity for the college community to reflect on the values of freedom, unity, diversity, tolerance, responsibility and nation-building.

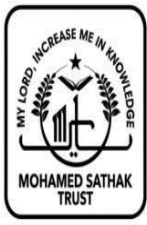

2. Flag Hoisting & Chief Guest Address

The National Flag was ceremonially hoisted by the Chief Guest, Ms. Archana Asokan, Senior Executive, Cognizant, Chennai. Following the flag hoisting, she delivered an inspiring keynote address to the gathering. Her address highlighted the importance of unity in diversity, mutual respect, social responsibility and the role of young citizens in contributing positively to the development and progress of the nation.

3. Independence Day Competitions

As part of the Independence Day celebrations, a series of competitions were conducted over the preceding days to encourage creativity, communication skills, teamwork and patriotic expression among students.

S. No.	Competition	Focus
1	Oratorical	Public speaking and patriotic expression
2	Essay Writing	Thoughts and reflections on the nation
3	Rangoli	Creative and artistic expression
4	Mime	Teamwork and visual storytelling
5	Dance	Cultural and patriotic performance

Mohamed Sathak College of Arts and Science

(Sponsored by Mohamed Sathak Trust)

Approved by AICTE | UGC | Affiliated to University of Madras
(A Muslim Minority Institution), An ISO 9001:2015 Certified Institution
Sholinganallur, Chennai - 600 119.

4. Student Performances

The best-performing student entries from the competitions were given an opportunity to perform on stage during the Independence Day programme. Their performances were presented in the presence of the Chief Guest, faculty members and fellow students, creating an energetic and memorable atmosphere. The stage presentations showcased the students' confidence, creativity, talent and patriotic spirit.

5. Prize Distribution & Felicitation

The Chief Guest honoured the participating students and distributed prizes to the winners of the various competitions. The students were appreciated for their talent, enthusiasm, dedication and active participation in the Independence Day activities.

6. Overall Championship

The Department of Computer Applications emerged as the Overall Champion and won the Overall Championship Trophy for its outstanding performance across the different competitions. The achievement reflected the department's team spirit, consistent participation and commitment to excellence.

7. Conclusion

The Independence Day celebration concluded on a high note, leaving the students with a strong sense of patriotism and pride. The programme was successfully conducted through the wholehearted cooperation and coordination of the teaching and non-teaching staff and NSS volunteers. The celebration served as a meaningful platform for students to demonstrate their talents while reinforcing the values of unity, responsibility, tolerance and service to the nation.

Jai Hind! ☐☐

Principal
Mohamed Sathak College of Arts & Science