EVENT REPORT

Commemorating Milad-un-Nabi 2026

“Humanitarian Quotes by the Messenger of God”

Event Overview

The Department of Arabic, Mohamed Sathak College of Arts and Science, successfully organized a special programme titled “Commemorating Milad-un-Nabi 2026” with the theme “Humanitarian Quotes by the Messenger of God”. The programme was organized to commemorate the birth and noble life of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and to create awareness among students about his timeless humanitarian teachings and values.

Opening & Qirath

The programme commenced with Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem and the recitation of the Holy Qur'an (Qirath) by Rehan, I Year, Biotechnology, seeking the blessings of Almighty.

Welcome Address

The programme continued with a warm and gracious Welcome Address delivered by Prof. Rameeza Begum.

Address by the Principal

The respected Principal Dr. M.S. Mohamed Jaabir addressed the gathering and shared his valuable thoughts on the significance of Milad-un-Nabi and the relevance of the noble values taught by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. His inspiring words encouraged students to understand and practise values such as compassion, kindness, justice, respect, and service to humanity.

Guest Honorarium and Felicitation

As a gesture of gratitude and respect, the Guest Honorarium was presented to the esteemed Guest Speaker, Dr. C. R. Manjula, in the presence of the Principal and Vice Principal Dr. M. Syed Ali.

Dr. Anuradha Mam, Dean, School of Biological Sciences, felicitated the Guest Speaker with a shawl as a mark of honour and appreciation for her valuable presence and contribution to the programme.

Naath in Tamil

The programme continued with a soulful Naath in Tamil, presented by Hilal, II Year, Electronics, expressing love and reverence for Prophet Muhammad ﷺ through the beauty of Tamil.

Guest Speaker's Address

The highlight of the programme was the enlightening address by the esteemed Guest Speaker, Dr. C. R. Manjula.

She spoke on the theme “Humanitarian Quotes by the Messenger of God” and highlighted the timeless teachings of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, particularly the values of compassion, kindness, justice, forgiveness, equality, respect, and service to humanity.

Her insightful address reminded the students that the humanitarian principles taught by the Prophet ﷺ continue to hold great relevance in today's world. The session inspired students to incorporate these values into their personal lives and contribute positively to society.

Prize Distribution Ceremony

The programme also included a Prize Distribution Ceremony to recognize the creativity, talent, and dedication of students who participated in the Milad-un-Nabi Poster-Making Contest.

The winners were announced by the respected Principal, and the prizes were distributed by the esteemed Guest of Honour. Participation certificates were also presented to all the students who took part in the contest.

Student Feedback

At the conclusion of the programme, all participants were requested to scan the QR code and submit their valuable feedback. This provided an opportunity for the organizers to understand the students' experiences and evaluate the effectiveness of the programme.

Vote of Thanks

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks delivered by Bilal, I Year, Visual Communication. He expressed sincere gratitude for the overall success of the programme.

National Anthem

The programme concluded with the National Anthem.
